REPUBLICANS IN PROCESSION

THE BIGGEST AND MOST SUCCESSFUL PARADE AND MEETING EVER HELD IN HAWAII.

Save for tonight's big rally at the Orpheum, the Republican campaign in Hawaii closed Saturday evening with the biggest torchlight procession ever seen on the islands and a succeeding meeting at Asia park which was pre-emptive of the greatest enthusiasm. At least two thousand voters gathered for the procession along King street from Fort to the Capitol axis. The men from the precincts of the Fifth district fell in on King street between Fort and Alakea those from the Fourth prolonging the line Waikiki. Henry Vida was in command of the Fifth contingent and Capt. Sam Johnson marshaled those from the Fourth.

Torches having been flamed and in the parade swung off to the music of many bands. The line of march was up Alakea to Vineyard, to Fort, to King and thence out King to Asia park. The route was crowded with spectators and the cheering along the line of march was continuous. Many of the precinct clubs turned out in uniform and all carried transparencies with inscriptions praising victory. Senatorial candidates Donnell and Lane, on horseback, led the procession and were cheered all along the line.

The Democrats were holding a funeral service at the Orpheum and in deference to the feelings of the few mourners who had gathered there some of the bands played the Dead March as they passed the building. The candidates, party workers and committeemen came along in a tally-ho drawn by six white horses.

The representatives of the Fourth brought up the rear of the procession. Senatorial candidate Bishop marching with his precinct.

Upon reaching Asia Park the huge procession circled the place and the different speakers took the platform as the bands massed and played a number of selections. There were all of four thousand people in the square when the proceedings commenced. On the stand were John C. Lane, who presided, Prince Kuhio, J. M. Dowsett, E. Faxon Bishop, the candidates for the lower house and dozens of the party workers.

After a brief address by the chairman who appealed to all party men to stand solidly together, W. C. Ashi took the floor. The Democrats he said stated that Governor Carter was the issue of the campaign and that he had been trying to take away the rights of the people, but as a matter of fact the Governor had been trying to give the people all of the rights to which they were entitled under the Organic Act.

Faxon Bishop reminded his hearers of the necessity of sticking close to party principles and counseled a steady support for the straight ticket. He thought that there were some of the laws which needed revision in Hawaii and the Republican party was the party to conduct such revision in an intelligent and liberal manner.

Senator Kanuha, formerly a Home Ruler, but a convert to Republicanism by reason of the party's progressiveness, was the next speaker, and Delegate Kuhio followed speaking in Hawaiian first. He continued in English, Solomon Kaleiopa and J. M. Dowsett were the other speakers.

The meeting closed with cheers for the party and for the candidates and thus ended a political gathering which will assuredly be remembered in the history of Hawaii's politics.

GREAT PICTURES OF FAIR SCENES

THE WORLD'S FAIR AS SEEN FROM THE VIEW-POINT OF AN ARTIST.

Only an artist could have secured the artistic and altogether pleasing pictures which are to be found in the Forest City World's Fair Art Portfolio. Most of us would have been at a loss as to what subjects would appear to best advantage when reproduced on the printed page; we would not know where to place the camera in order to catch each scene so as to show to the greatest advantage. The official photographer of the Exposition is a true artist, and he has made no mistakes either in selecting the subjects or in so handling them as to secure the best results. You will not consider us overly enthusiastic if you will send us 10 cents and a coupon for Forest City Album No. 21, which is one of the best in the entire series.

NO. 21 CONTAINS:
A Vision of the Bosphorus, Administration Avenue, East Pavilion and Sculpture Garden, Palace of Art, Plaza Orleans from Wireless Telegraph Tower.

The Grand Basin on a Special Day, A Function at the Illinois Building, The Vancouver Island Community, The Colonade of States at Night (double page), The Belle of the Fashion, The Kafirs and their Cousins, The Pavilion and Garden of Great Britain.

The Shopping Center of the World's Fair, Checking the Children, The Igroote Village, The Jaffa Gate from Within.

THOMAS IS VERY SLOW.

Vessel has Large Crowd of Passengers Going Home.

The transport Thomas arrived yesterday morning from Manila via Nagasaki after a very slow passage. She left Manila October 15 and Nagasaki October 22. A foul bottom and poor coal delayed her. The vessel experienced pleasant weather. Nothing of particular interest occurred.

Major General J. F. Wade who has been in charge of military matters in the Philippines is a through passenger on the transport for San Francisco. General Corbin went out to Manila recently to relieve General Wade. Accompanying General Wade, is Major Mann his aide. Mrs. Mann is also a passenger.

Lieutenant Grant a grandson of the famous Union General and Lieutenant MacArthur a son of General MacArthur of the Department of the Pacific, are also through passengers for San Francisco.

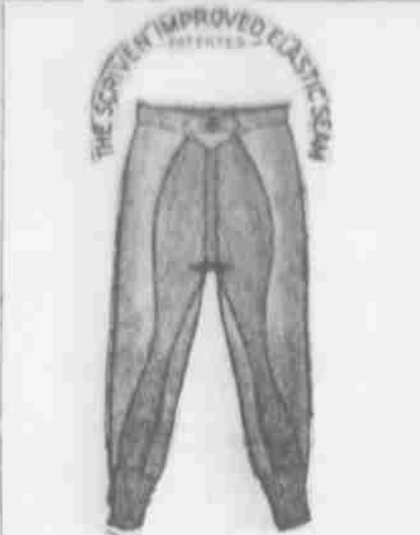

Commander D. H. Mahan a brother of Captain Alfred Mahan a naval authority and strategist, is returning to America from Nagasaki, accompanied by his wife. There are a number of cabin passengers on the vessel including army officers and their families. The enlisted men en route to San Francisco number 370, discharged soldiers and civilians 67 and general prisoners 26. The vessel sailed for San Francisco at noon today.
